Here, in one of Pioneer's most valuable packages, it's a wealth of outstanding performance in the AM/FM solid state stereo receiver. The SX-828 is another in a long, proud line of advanced stereo components from Pioneer - and certainly one of the best. For musical power that will fill any room size with a clear, rich sound, the SX-828 has up to 270 w (by 4 oms). For FM selectivity and sensitivity, which has no peer-to-peer in a block of this size, the device has a large linear set of scale settings, the latest solid state scheme, and a pair of FM tuning meters. And finally, for the supreme versatility that is so necessary for the quality of hi-fi today, it provides two tape monitoring schemes for duplicating tape to tape, and allows you to use up to two turntables, three sets of speaker systems, two microphones and even too sets of headphones. All in one beautifully designed, solidly built block from the quality stereo people at Pioneer. IMHO, the best pioneer of the 70s range of everything I owned. Had it completely recapped plus relaying key boards like PS, Prot, Main Amps, Equalizer. As new now well still 40 years, lol. Incredible FM reception, too. Got it for stealing (many issues since completely resolved). There's a reason they're hard to find, too. You will have a hard time curious to mine out the clutches of my cold, hands after my funeral, lol ! It is considered on March 22, 2014 by stereomanA very beautiful and powerful block. Super build quality from all sides and I'm very proud of what I have. Unfortunately they don't make them their But for all vintage Hi Fi fans, if you get one in good working order snap it up.
